Keyboard shortcuts FastCAD
The FastCAD web app enables

---

access to tools and functions of the FastCAD software program from any device that has a web browser. Like the desktop program, it is a desktop-app based on the AutoLISP language and offers a similar user interface and functionality, but it can be accessed from a web browser anywhere in the world and doesn't require any installation or installation on the device itself. Web users may browse in the mobile version as a web app or download and install in the desktop version.
