What a goodly speech have these laymen made!ã .. to wit, that God from on high is able to give that most Christian word, that all men who hear it believe, and do the same, and send forth the same forthwith, and do, with the voice of their own mouths, enter into His Temple, and stand before His Majesty, and, with tears of his own, bewail his sins and repentance and faith towards Him. . For whom the Lord, according to the request of the Psalmists, has made himself present in the shape of an adorable Lamb, for the cleansing of the idolators from all sin, and him to be a great protection in the time of their obduracy, and to cause them, in the sight
